

Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves. Ensure justice for those being crushed. Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless and see that they get justice.

- Proverbs 31:8-9 (NLT)

Say Something! - by Peter H Reynolds

I wonder why is it important for God's people to speak up for those who are not treated fairly?

I wonder what would you like to say to your family? Your friends? To Highland? To Abilene?

I wonder how you will use your voice? Through art? With your work? With your presence?

I wonder why is God's greatest commandment to love God and to love people?

I wonder why it is sometimes hard for us to accept people who are different than we are?

I wonder how God feels when he sees people of color treated differently because of the color of their skin?

I wonder how you feel when you see people of color treated differently because of the color of their skin?

I wonder what you are going to say?

Speech Bubble Poster

Using different colors of paper make different shapes and sizes of speech bubbles. Inside each bubble write words or ideas that you think are important for others to hear. Make a poster with all the speech bubbles so you can be reminded that you have something important to say! The world needs to hear your voice!
