

Mose and the Burning Bush, Plagues and Passover - Exodus 4-12

There's a lot of information in our review today. As you think about these three important stories from the life of Moses, what do you wonder?

I wonder...

- I wonder about the burning bush. What did it look like?
- I wonder why God used a bush in the desert to get Moses' attention?
- I wonder how God gets your attention?
- I wonder what Moses was thinking and feeling when he stood before Pharaoh the first time?
- I wonder what Pharaoh was thinking about God as each plague came to Egypt?
- I wonder why Pharaoh was so stubborn?
- I wonder what God's people were thinking as they watched the Egyptians deal with all the plagues?
- I wonder what God's people thought when Moses and Aaron told them to use the blood of the lamb to paint their doorposts?
- I wonder if they were afraid for their firstborn sons?
- I wonder what God's people were thinking as they started their journey out of Egypt?
- I wonder what you think is the most important part of this story?
- I wonder why this story is important for us to know?
